Hi Shoren –

I wanted to share with you the letter that the NCC and some of its denominations sent to Administrator Jackson. The National Council of Churches is an ecumenical body that represents 36 Christian denominations and 45 million people around the United States.

I also included the resolution from the Orthodox Diocese in Alaska that was passed last year which is a great piece that has helped educate the broader faith community about the issue and importance of water in Alaska.

Please feel free to forward this to anyone who you believe would be interested in the faith community's position on the proposed mine in Bristol Bay.

Thanks and looking forward to working with you.
Blessings,

Tyler
